Dear Mr. Parr:

I just returned from a fishing trip in Guatemala at the Casa Vieja Lodge with my son, a grandson and a granddaughter, and in three days of fishing we released a total of 62 sailfish.

My grandson, Gabriel, released 26 of them and three were caught with the Canyon reel that I purchased from you some months ago using a 12-pound test line. I am enclosing a photo while he was fighting one of the fish with the reel.

I am also enclosing another photo showing one of the sailfish caught by my granddaughter that, by the way, released 26, so that you can appreciate the size of the fish we were catching.

I caught a couple with the reel and liked it very much. However, I would suggest that the handle be made a little larger, for during the fight a slightly bigger handle like the ones the Shimano or Fin'Nor reels have would have been preferable.

Apart from that, I am very pleased with the performance of the reel and it met my expectations.

Sincerely,

Gonzalo Ferrer
